III - O Direito

a) Da Prioridade das Marcas da Reclamante

12.

Considerando que a prioridade de uma marca é aferida pela data em que o pedido tiver sido apresentado (artigo 11º, nº1, do CPI), é indiscutível que as marca das Reclamante gozam de prioridade face à marca de registo internacional sub judice.

Com efeito,

A prioridade das marcas da Reclamante é indiscutível, visto que a marca de registo internacional sub judice se encontra registada desde 12 de Janeiro de 2018 na Organização Mundial da Propriedade Intelectual e aquelas foram pedidas e concedidas anteriormente a essa data.

b) Da Identidade e Afinidade dos Produtos

14.

Os produtos que a marca registanda se destina a assinalar apresentam um elo de identidade, complementaridade e de consequente afinidade com os produtos assinalados pelas marcas prioritárias da Reclamante 15.

De igual modo, também se estabelece um elo de complementaridade e de consequente afinidade entre os produtos a distinguir pela marca sub judice e o objecto social da Reclamante, em particular, o “design, produção, reparação, distribuição, importação e exportação de equipamento de comunicações, equipamentos eletromecânicos e equipamentos electrónicos mecânicos”.

16.

Preliminarmente, cabe referir que a Lei não contem uma definição legal do que sejam produtos ou serviços idênticos ou afins e, por isso, fica cometido ao intérprete e aplicador do Direito a tarefa de, casuisticamente, indagar a existência, ou não de identidade e/ou afinidade.

17.

Não obstante, decorre lapidarmente do disposto no artigo 245º, nº 2, do CPI, a irrelevância, para esse efeito da inclusão de produtos ou serviços na mesma classe da Classificação Internacional de Nice.

18.

A fim de auxiliar o intérprete e aplicador do Direito, a Doutrina e Jurisprudência têm apontado diversos critérios, sendo sobremaneira referidos a natureza, fins, destino, a acessoriedade, a complementaridade, o carácter concorrencial dos produtos ou serviços e ainda os canais de comercialização e distribuição.

19.

Parafraseando Couto Gonçalves, o exercício do apuramento da identidade e/ou afinidade dos produtos não pode ser desligado da função primordial da marca, a distintiva, pelo que o que está em causa é sempre a indagação da existência, ou não de identidade e/ou afinidade de produtos ou serviços marcados, no sentido se que, aplicando-se-lhes a mesma marca, lhes possa razoavelmente ser atribuída a mesma origem empresarial, 20.

Socorrendo-nos das palavras de Nogueira de Sêrens, dir-se-á que «... *a afinidade ou similitude entre os produtos ou serviços afirmar-se-á sempre que, pela sua significação económica, qualidade e modo de utilização, especialmente do ponto de vista dos seus locais normais de produção e de venda, esses produtos ou serviços apresentem 'pontos de contacto' tão estritos que, aplicando-se-lhes a mesma marca, o consumidor médio os poderia razoavelmente atribuir à mesma fonte produtiva*²».

² Nogueira de Sêrens, «A Vulgarização da Marca na Directiva nº 89/104/CEE, de 21 de Dezembro de 1988 (id est, no nosso direito futuro)», in Estudos em Homenagem ao Prof. Doutor Ferrer Correia, vol. IV, Coimbra 1997, p. 41

21.

No presente caso estabelece-se uma relação de identidade, complementaridade e, por conseguinte, afinidade entre os produtos que a marca registada visa assinalar na classe 9^a e os produtos assinalados nessa classe pelas marcas prioritárias da Reclamante.

22.

A este respeito deve observar-se que os produtos assinalados pelas marcas prioritárias da Reclamante estão incluídos na lista dos produtos a distinguir pela marca sub judice na classe 9^a.

23.

De facto, as marcas em cotejo assinalam, todas elas, identicamente ou em sinónímia, na classe 9^a “aparelhos e instrumentos científicos, náuticos, geodésicos, eléctricos, fotográficos, cinematográficos, ópticos, de pesagem, de medida, de sinalização, de verificação (inspecção), de socorro (salvamento) e de ensino; aparelhos para o registo, a transmissão, a reprodução do som ou de imagem; suportes de registo magnético

24.

Esses produtos têm a mesma natureza, fins e aplicabilidade, apresentando-se concorrencialmente no mercado e destinando-se à satisfação de necessidades comuns de procura conjunta.

25.

Por outro lado, também se estabelece uma relação de complementaridade, acessoriadade e, por conseguinte, afinidade entre os produtos que a marca sub judice visa assinalar e a actividade da Reclamante, maxime a que respeita ao “Design, produção, reparação, distribuição, importação e exportação de equipamento de comunicações, equipamentos eletromecânicos e equipamentos electrónicos mecânicos”

26.

Na verdade, na vasta lista de produtos a assinalar pela marca de registo internacional sub judice encontram-se diversos aparelhos de comunicações (vg telegraphs [apparatus]; (...) video telephones (...) laptop computers (...) smartphones (...) tablet computers (...) telecommunication apparatus in the form of jewellery; telecommunication apparatus in the form of jewelry”, etc.

27.

Além disso, no rol dos produtos a distinguir pela marca reclamada também se encontram alguns exemplos de equipamentos electromecânicos ou ainda equipamentos nos quais os dispositivos electromecânicos são indispensáveis para o seu funcionamento (vg Apparatus for (...), refrigerating, drying, ventilatin; (...) hair dryers (...) refrigerating apparatus and machines, etc).

28.

Acresce que são produtos que podem ter a mesma origem empresarial e comungar os mesmos canais de oferta.

29.

Ora, se por mera hipótese académica de raciocínio fosse concedida protecção em Portugal à marca de registo internacional sub judice, o consumidor seria induzido em erro ou confusão quanto à origem empresarial dos produtos assinalados.

30.

Com efeito, o consumidor imputaria à Reclamante a origem empresarial dos produtos assinalados pela marca sub judice, supondo (em erro) que estaria perante uma nova marca desta ou, ainda, de uma variante das marcas anteriores.

31.

Mesmo que se admitisse, no que se não concede, que o consumidor não atribuísse à Reclamante a origem empresarial dos produtos assinalados pela marca registada, ainda assim, poderia supor que tais produtos proviriam de uma empresa que tivesse algum tipo de ligação económica ou jurídica com a Reclamante, no fundo, que Reclamante e Reclamada fossem empresas do mesmo grupo ou empresas ligadas económica ou juridicamente entre si, o que se nega por não corresponder à verdade.

c) Da Semelhança entre os Sinais

32.

Através da comparação das marcas em cotejo facilmente se conclui que estas têm flagrantes e ostensivas semelhanças entre si, sendo susceptíveis de induzir o consumidor em situações de erro ou confusão bem como no risco de associação quanto à origem empresarial de tais marcas.

33.

Na verdade, como se constata pela análise comparativa dos elementos nominativos das marcas em disputa

AIWA

AIWA

elas são iguais!

34.

Com efeito, a marca registada reproduz na íntegra as marcas prioritárias da Reclamante, o que é dizer, que estas estão totalmente contidas no sinal sub judice.

35.

O facto de as marcas em confronto serem marcas mistas não altera em nada o juízo da existência de semelhança e confundibilidade entre os sinais.

36.

Na verdade, apesar de serem marcas mistas, os sinais em disputa têm carácter predominantemente nominativo na medida em que consistem na estilização da palavra AIWA, respectivamente, em letras representando um grafismo especial e em letras com caracteres maciços.

37.

Além disso, é pacífica a prevalência dos elementos nominativos nas marcas complexas, formadas por elementos nominativos e figurativos por os primeiros serem os mais idóneos a ser retidos e conservados na memória do consumidor.

38.

Com efeito, é pelo nomen que o consumidor identifica e se refere a uma marca. E, como ressalta à evidência, o consumidor que pretendesse adquirir produtos das marcas cotejadas, identificá-los-ia, e identificá-los-á, exactamente da mesma maneira, AIWA, 39.

Seria, pois, inevitável, a indução do consumidor em erro ou confusão.

40.

Na verdade, nos termos preditos, o consumidor julgaria que a marca registanda seria ou uma variante das marcas anteriores da Reclamante, rectius, uma versão “actualizada/melhorada” destas, ou mesmo uma nova marca da Reclamante ou, ainda, eventualmente, uma marca proveniente de uma empresa que fizesse parte do mesmo grupo da Reclamante ou que com ela tivesse algum tipo de ligação económica ou jurídica, o que volta a negar-se por não corresponder, manifestamente, à verdade.

41.

Mas, a marca registanda reproduz totalmente o elemento característico da denominação social da Reclamante AIWA CO.,LTD, sendo aqui aplicáveis com as necessárias adaptações as considerações vertidas nos artigos anteriores acerca da comparação dos sinais.

Ora,

42.

A marca é o sinal distintivo de comércio destinado a individualizar produtos e serviços de uma empresa dos de outras empresas (artigo 222º, nº1, do CPI), daí que se afirme que a principal função da marca é a distintiva.

43.

A função distintiva da marca ficaria inelutavelmente comprometida se existissem outras marcas ou outros sinais distintivos de comércio para produtos ou serviços idênticos ou afins que com ela se confundissem.

44.

Por essa razão prevê imperativamente a Lei como fundamento de recusa de registo de marca a reprodução ou imitação, no todo ou em parte, de marca anteriormente registada por outrem para produtos ou serviços idênticos ou afins, que possa induzir em erro ou confusão o consumidor ou que compreenda o risco de associação com a marca registada (artigo 239º,nº1, alínea a) ex vi artigo 254º do CPI).

45.

Também por essa razão o artigo 239º, nº2, alínea a) ex vi artigo 254º do CPI determina como fundamento de recusa, dependente de invocação, a reprodução ou imitação de firma, de denominação social, ou apenas parte característica das mesmas, que não pertençam ao requerente, ou que o mesmo não esteja autorizado a usar, se for susceptível de induzir o consumidor em erro ou confusão.

46.

Acresce que nos termos do artigo 8º da Convenção da União de Paris, o nome comercial será protegido em todos os países da União, sem obrigação de depósito ou registo, façam ou não parte de marca de fábrica ou de comércio.

47.

Uma marca é considerada imitação de outra quando, cumulativamente, nos termos do disposto no artigo 245º, nº1, do CPI, além da prioridade, se verifiquem os seguintes requisitos:

- Sejam ambas destinadas a assinalar produtos ou serviços idênticos ou afins;
- Tenham tal semelhança gráfica, figurativa, fonética ou outra que induza facilmente o consumidor em erro ou confusão, ou que comporte um risco de associação com marca anteriormente registada, de forma que o consumidor não as possa distinguir senão depois de exame atento ou confronto.

48.

Atendendo a tudo quanto antecede, forçoso é concluir-se que se encontram preenchidos todos os requisitos cumulativos do conceito legal de imitação, razão pela qual deverá ser RECUSADA a protecção em Portugal da marca de registo internacional nº 1406247

com base na verificação dos fundamentos de recusa previstos nos artigos 239º, nº1, alínea a) e 239º, nº2, alínea a) do CPI ex vi artigo 254º do CPI e do artigo 8º da Convenção da União de Paris.

d) Possibilidade de Concorrência Desleal Mas também com fundamento no disposto na alínea e) do artigo 239º, nº1, ex vi artigo 254º do CPI recusada a protecção em Portugal da marca de registo internacional sub judice.

49.

50.

Segundo aquela norma o reconhecimento de que o requerente pretende fazer concorrência desleal, ou o reconhecimento de que esta é possível, independentemente de intenção, é igualmente fundamento de recusa de registo de marca.

51.

São actos de concorrência desleal, nomeadamente, os actos susceptíveis de criar confusão com a empresa, o estabelecimento, os produtos ou os serviços dos concorrentes qualquer que seja o meio empregado (artigo 317º, nº1, alínea a) do CPI).

52.

Para que se verifique concorrência desleal não é necessária a existência de dolo, basta que a concorrência desleal seja possível independentemente da intenção do agente, isto é, que esse resultado seja objectivamente concebível e provável, atenta a manifesta semelhanças entre as marcas em confronto e a identidade ou afinidade entre os produtos e/ou serviços que tais marcas se destinam a assinalar.

53.

Na opinião do Professor Oliveira Ascensão, a concorrência desleal pode não depender da verificação de elementos do tipo criminal, tratando-se antes de uma contrariedade objectiva aos padrões de lealdade na concorrência.

54.

A própria Lei diz que é dispensado qualquer tipo de intenção maléfica, bastando que a concorrência desleal seja possível independentemente da intenção do agente.

55.

No presente caso, tendo sido demonstrada a existência de um elo de identidade, complementaridade e, por conseguinte, afinidade entre os produtos bem como as inegáveis e evidentes semelhanças entre os sinais, forçoso se torna concluir que se fosse efectivamente concedida protecção em Portugal à marca de registo internacional sub judice, estar-se-ia a possibilitar, mesmo que não existisse intenção da Reclamada a prática de actos de concorrência desleal impeditivos de registo nos termos da alínea e) do artigo 239º, nº1, do CPI ex vi artigo 254º do CPI.

Nestes termos e nos mais de Direito, que doutamente serão supridos deve a presente Reclamação ser julgada procedente e, em consequência, recusada a protecção em Portugal à marca de registo internacional nº 1406247
