- (1) Legal protection is not granted to the following signs:
- 10) signs the application for the registration of which was filed in bad faith by the person applying for registration (hereinafter applicant) or the use of which has commenced in bad faith.

§ 10. Relative circumstances which preclude legal protection

- (1) Legal protection is not granted to the following trade marks:
- 2) trade marks which are identical or similar to an earlier trade mark which has been granted legal protection with regard to identical goods or services or goods or services of a similar kind designated by the trade mark, if there exists a likelihood of confusion on the part of the consumers, which includes association of the trade mark with the earlier trade mark;
- 3) trade marks which are identical or similar to an earlier registered trade mark or a trade mark which has been filed for registration or to a trade mark which is known to the majority of the Estonian population and which has been granted legal protection for different kinds of goods or services, if the use of the later trade mark might take unfair advantage of, or be detrimental to, the distinctive character or repute of the earlier trade mark which has been acquired by the filing date of the application or by the date of priority of the later trade mark;

[RT I 2009, 4, 24 - entry into force 01.03.2009]

4) trade marks which are identical or confusingly similar to a business name entered in the commercial register prior to the filing date of the application, the date of international registration or the date of priority, and the area of activity of the respective undertaking is in the same field as the goods and services which the trade mark is used to or is going to be used to designate;

[RT I 2006, 61, 456 - entry into force 01.01.2007]

(2) Circumstances specified in clauses (1) 2)–6) of this section which preclude legal protection are not taken into account if the proprietor of the earlier trade mark or another earlier right consents to the grant of legal protection in writing.

If the applicant fails to respond by the due date, the application is deemed to be withdrawn.

§ 41. Adjudication of appeals and revocation applications

- (3) In case an appeal or revocation application is granted in whole or in part, the Board of Appeal shall annul the decision of the Patent Office and require the Patent Office to continue the processing taking into account the facts set out in the decision of the Board of Appeal.

§ 47. Withdrawal of applications, termination and resumption of processing

(3) An applicant may request that processing be resumed if the Patent Office terminated processing having deemed the application to be withdrawn pursuant to §§ 37, 38 or 46 of this Act and the applicant failed to perform the acts due to force majeure or some other impediment beyond the control of the applicant or a representative of the applicant.

§ 69. Effect of international registration
