NOTIFICATION OF A PROVISIONAL REFUSAL OF PROTECTION
OF AN INTERNATIONAL REGISTRATION DESIGNATING
THE PHILIPPINES
Rule 17(1)

International Registration No: 1460656	IR Date/Subsequent Designation Date: 31 October 2018
Holder:	Guangdong Camel apparel Co., Ltd [CN]
Mark:
Examiner:	BENITA AILEEN V. VILLAPANDO
Supervisor:	MARITES Q. SALVIEJO

The mark has been examined, but the issues below prevent the Intellectual Property Office of the Philippines (IPOP HL) from granting the registration of the mark for all the goods and/or services.

Registrability Issue(s):

The mark nearly resembles registered marks belonging to different proprietors or marks with earlier filing or priority dates, and the resemblance is likely to deceive or cause confusion (IP Code, Sec. 123.1[d][i][ii]). See attachment(s).

SEC. 123. Registrability

123.1. A mark cannot be registered if it:

(d) Is identical with a registered mark belonging to a different proprietor or a mark with an earlier filing or priority date, in respect of:

- (i) The same goods or services, or*
- (ii) Closely related goods or services, or*
- (iii) If it nearly resembles such a mark as to be likely to deceive or cause confusion*

RULE 102. Registrability. — A mark cannot be registered if it:

(d) Is identical with a registered mark belonging to a different proprietor or a mark with an earlier filing or priority date, in respect of:

- (i) The same goods or services, or*
- (ii) Closely related goods or services, or*
- (iii) If it nearly resembles such a mark as to be likely to deceive or cause confusion*

Information relating to subsequent procedure:

The applicant must respond in writing to this refusal within two (2) months from the digital signature date found at the end of this notice. The response must be filed by a duly authorized representative with a local address in the Philippines (the list of agents in the Philippines is available on the IPOP HL website). Within the two (2) month-period, the applicant may request an extension of time of another two (2) months to respond to this provisional refusal. The request for extension must be filed by the applicant's local representative in the Philippines. The request for extension can only be made once.

Failure to respond to the provisional refusal, submission of an incomplete response, or failure to request an extension of time to respond within the two-month period will result in the abandonment of the application. In case of abandonment, the applicant has three (3) months from the abandonment date (counted from the lapse of the period to respond) to request the revival of the application. Failure to revive an abandoned application will result in its final abandonment and the confirmation of the total provisional refusal.

If the applicant is able to overturn the objections raised by the Examiner in the provisional refusal, the mark will be published for purposes of opposition. If no opposition to the registration of the mark is filed, the Office will issue a statement of grant of protection.

All responses or communications should be addressed to: THE DIRECTOR OF TRADEMARKS, Intellectual Property Office of the Philippines, 14/F Intellectual Property Center, No. 28 Upper McKinley Road, McKinley Hill Town Center, Fort Bonifacio, Taguig City 1634, Philippines.

Additional information:

The IPOPHL requires the submission of the Declaration of Actual Use (DAU) within three (3) years from the date of international registration or the date of subsequent designation, as the case may be; within one (1) year from the fifth anniversary of the date of grant of protection of the mark; within one (1) year from the renewal date; and within one (1) year from the fifth anniversary of each renewal. The provisions governing the filing of the DAU are contained in the Trademark Regulations of 2017.
