Article 7

(Relative Grounds for Refusal of a Trademark Application)

1. On the grounds of an opposition filed, a trademark shall not protect a sign:
 - a) which is identical with an earlier protected sign of another person for similar goods or services or similar to an earlier protected sign of another person for the identical or similar kind of goods or services if, due to such identity or similarity, there exist a likelihood of confusion in the course of trade, which includes the likelihood of association with an earlier protected trademark;
 - b) which is identical or similar to, for the identical or similar kind of goods or services, a sign of another person which is well-known in BiH, within the meaning of Article 6bis of the Paris Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property (hereinafter: a well-known sign);
 - c) which, in accordance with Article 16, paragraph 3 of the TRIPS Agreement (the Agreement on Trade-Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights), regardless of the goods or services to which it relates, constitutes a reproduction, an imitation or a transliteration of a protected sign of another person or the essential part thereof, which is known beyond any doubt by the participants in the course of trade in BiH as a sign of high reputation (hereinafter: a famous trademark) used by another person to designate his goods or services, if the use of such a sign would take unfair advantage of the reputation of a famous trademark or be detrimental to its distinctive character or reputation;

d) whose appearance or content infringes an older copyright or geographical indication or an earlier protected industrial design;

e) the use of which would infringe the right to the personal name of a renowned person or the personal portrayal of any person if the came into existence before the date of a trademark application or the date of the granted priority claimed in the trademark application;

f) which is identical with or similar to an earlier trademark which was registered for identical or similar goods or services and which has expired due to the failure to renew the registration if less than two years have elapsed from the expiry of the earlier trademark, unless the holder of the earlier trademark gave his consent for the grant of the later trademark or did not use his trademark.

g) which is filed contrary to the principle of good faith, conscientiousness and honesty.

2. The protected sign referred to in paragraph 1 items a) and c) of this Article shall be considered to be a sign which is protected by a trademark for the territory of BiH, whereas the protected sign referred to in item a) of paragraph 1 of this Article shall be considered to be a sign which is the subject matter of the application for the grant of a trademark for the territory of BiH, provided that a trademark applied for in that application is granted

Article 8

(Determining Whether a Sign is Well-Known)

(1) In determining whether the sign referred to in paragraph 1 item b) of Article 7 of this Law is a well-known sign or whether the sign referred to in paragraph 1 item c) of Article 7 of this Law is a famous trademark, the knowledge of the sign in the relevant sector of the public, including the knowledge which has been obtained as a result of the promotion of the sign shall be taken into account.

(2) The relevant sector of the public shall be considered to be the actual and potential users of goods or services designated by such a sign, as well as persons involved in the distribution channels of such goods or services.
