I am writing to inform you that following receipt of an opposition to the above trade mark, it is necessary to issue this formal provisional refusal letter. This provisional refusal covers all of the goods and services of the International Registration.

Please find attached a copy of the TM7 'Notice of Opposition', which includes details of any marks referred to in the statement of case, which was received by the United Kingdom Trade Mark Registry. Copies of these documents have been sent to the holder informing them of this provisional refusal.

If the holder of the International Registration wishes to file a counterstatement, they must complete the form TM8 'Notice of defence and counterstatement', which is available at ipo.gov.uk/tmforms and return it to this office within two months of the date of this letter. This period cannot be extended, except in the circumstances described below. The holder should note that failure to file a TM8 will result in the provisional refusal being upheld.

If both parties to this dispute wish to negotiate and want to enter a 'cooling off period' then the time for filing the TM8 can be extended for a further seven months by the filing the form TM9c 'Request for a cooling off period, which is available at ipo.gov.uk/tmforms

The TM8 should be received on or before 23 December 2019 above unless a cooling off period is entered into by the parties.

The holder of the International Registration must provide us with an address for correspondence in the United Kingdom, another EEA state or the Channel Islands on a form TM33 'Appointment or change of agent or contact address', which is available at ipo.gov.uk/tmforms within this two month period.

Attachment 2

Statement of grounds for opposition based on Section 5 (2) of the Trade Marks Act 1994, reasons why we consider that there is a likelihood of confusion:

1. The Opponent's Earlier Marks: UK Trade Mark Registration No. 3377563 SKY, UK Trade Mark Registration No. 3188194 SKY (glassmark logo), UK Trade Mark Registration No. 3188183 SKY (series of 2), UK Trade Mark Registration No. 2609030 SKY STORE, UK Trade Mark Registration No. 3165005 SKY NEWS (series of 5) and UK Trade Mark Registration No. 3164812 SKY FOR BUSINESS (series of 2) ("the Opponent's Earlier Marks").
2. The application is for the mark SKYLAWFIRM ("the Application"). SKY is a memorable and important aspect of the mark applied for and is wholly incorporated in the Applicant's mark. The word SKY plays an independent, distinctive role in the Applicant's mark. Visually, aurally and conceptually, the Applicant's mark contains the whole of the Opponent's Earlier Mark, SKY, which acts as the most memorable and important aspect of the mark. For these reasons, SKY will be the focus of attention by consumers.
3. The similarities between the Application and the Opponent's Earlier Marks are enhanced by the consumers' "imperfect recollection". The average consumer rarely has the chance to make a direct comparison of marks and will therefore be unlikely to compare the Application and the Opponent's Earlier Marks side by side but will have to rely on the "imperfect picture" of the marks it holds in its mind. The average consumer is likely to recall the dominant distinctive aural, visual and conceptual element(s) of each of the Opponent's Earlier Marks, which is the word SKY in the case of the mark applied for and the Opponent's Earlier Marks. The Applicant's mark will be taken to refer to services which originate from the Opponent, which is commonly referred to as "Sky" (the name of which they trade under).
4. In addition to the mark SKY, the Opponent has a family of SKY marks, which, for example, includes SKY, SKY NEWS, SKY STORE and SKY FOR BUSINESS. The average consumer may believe that the mark applied for is an extension of the Opponent's family of SKY marks and that the Applicant's services are provided by the Opponent (or by a related or economically linked entity).
5. The Applicant's mark and the Opponent's Earlier SKY Marks are highly similar. The services for which coverage is sought by the Applicant are either identical with or closely similar to the services covered by the Opponent's Earlier Marks and are therefore marketed and/or sold to the same users through the same trade channels.
6. Further details will be provided at the evidence stages.

Attachment 4Statement of grounds for opposition based on Section 5(3) of the Trade Marks Act 1994:

1. The Opponent is the leading digital satellite television provider in the UK and Ireland. The Opponent also provides other communication services including, but not limited to, telecommunications and broadband.
2. It has been providing these and other goods and services under the SKY word and device marks for the past 30 years. The Opponent also offers gaming, advertising and retail services.
3. The Opponent has expended substantial sums on development, advertising, promotion and sponsorship over the years. As a result, the Opponent has generated an extremely strong reputation in the SKY mark in the UK.

Unfair advantage

4. The Opponent has a substantial reputation in its various SKY word and device marks. In light of the reputation and the identity and/or similarity between the marks, the average consumer is likely to think that the services of the Application emanate from the Opponent or are provided with their consent.
5. By incorporating an identical and/or similar element for identical, similar or dissimilar services, use by the Applicant of the mark applied for would unfairly use the reputation and goodwill of the Opponent's marks for its own benefit, causing damage to the Opponent's rights and reputation.
6. Use of SKYLAWFIRM by the Applicant would ride on the coattails of this reputation and goodwill.
7. Such use would therefore be unfair as the Applicant would be seeking to associate itself with the Opponent and its well-established brand and would derive a benefit from doing so. This will confer an unfair advantage on the Applicant.

Detriment to repute and distinctive character

8. The use of SKYLAWFIRM by the Applicant will cause detriment to the repute of the Opponent's earlier rights because the Opponent will not be able to control the manner in which the Applicant uses its mark which may be adverse to the image created by the Opponent and erode the distinctiveness of the Opponent's marks.
9. The Opponent will also have no control over the quality of services provided by the Applicant (tarnishment). This is irrespective of whether the services are identical, similar or dissimilar (Davidoff & Cie SA and another v Gofkid Ltd (Case C-292/00) [2003] All ER (EC) 1029 at 1049).

10. In addition to the confusion that would inevitably arise as a result of any use of SKYLAWFIRM by the Applicant in relation to the services of the Application, such use will diminish the attractiveness and strength of the Opponent's Earlier Marks and dilute the distinctive character of the Opponent's earlier rights as an indication of origin.
11. The enormous distinctiveness of the SKY mark that has been acquired by the Opponent over more than 30 years would be blurred, despite the Opponent's vigilance in protecting its exclusivity in the SKY mark over this period. The use of the Applicant's mark will clearly reduce the capacity of the Opponent to distinguish its goods and services.
12. The CJEU has held in this regard that "the stronger the earlier mark's distinctive character, the easier it will be to accept that detriment has been caused to it" (see C-375/97 General Motors Corporation v Yplon SA at para 30).
13. Further, given that the Opponent's Earlier Marks and that the mark applied for are highly similar, the relevant section of the public is likely to make a connection or establish a link between them. The link will have an effect on the economic behaviour of the consumer and is likely to lead to a decrease in revenue for the Opponent.
14. Further information will be provided at evidence stages.

Attachment 5

Statement of grounds for opposition based on Section 5 (4) of the Trade Marks Act 1994:

1. When and where the earlier mark was used in the UK:

3. Services for which use of the Applicant's mark would amount to passing off:

All the services.

4. Why use of the Applicant's mark would be contrary to law, particularly the law of passing off:

The Opponent submits that they own goodwill in and/or have a significant reputation in the word mark SKY in relation to the above-mentioned goods and services, which is protected by the law of passing off in the UK. By seeking to register SKYLAWFIRM, the Applicant has made a misrepresentation to the public which is likely to lead the public to believe that the services offered by the Applicant are those of or related to the Opponent. The Opponent has suffered and/or is likely to suffer damage as a result of the misrepresentation.

5. Further details will be provided in the evidence stages.
