II. REGISTRATION PREREQUISITES

Relative Grounds for Refusal of a Trademark Registration Based on Earlier Trademarks

Article 7

Based on an opposition a trademark shall not be registered:

- 1) Should such trademark be identical to an earlier registered trademark for the same type of goods and/or services for which the new registration is applied for;
- 2) Should, because of its identity or similarity with goods and/or services covered by the trademark, there exists a likelihood of confusion on the part of the public due to the likelihood of associating with the earlier trademark;

An earlier trademark referred to in paragraph 1 of the present Article shall be considered:

- 1) A trademark registered in Montenegro which enjoys priority right stipulated in Articles 22, 23 and 24 of the present Law;
- 2) A trademark registered on the basis of ratified international treaties effective in Montenegro;
- 3) A trademark which is notorious and/or well-known in Montenegro on the day of application for the registration of a trademark or on the day of priority right, if the priority has been claimed, pursuant to Article 6bis of the Paris Convention.

An earlier trademark shall be also understood to include a an application for the registration of a trademark referred to in paragraph 2 items 1 and 2 of the present Article, provided that it becomes registered.

In establishing whether the mark referred to paragraph 2 item 3 of the present Article is a well known mark, the familiarity of the relevant part of the public with the mark shall be taken into account, including their familiarity with the mark as a consequence of mark-related marketing activities.

The relevant part of the public shall be understood to mean actual and potential users of goods and/or services designated by such mark, as well as the persons involved in the process of distribution and trade of the respective goods and/or services.

Based on an opposition a new trademark for which the registration application has been filed shall not be registered if such trademark is identical or similar to an earlier trademark which has reputation in Montenegro, and the registration of goods and/or services has been sought which are not similar to those goods and/or services for which the previous trademark has been registered, should the utilization of such trademark be detrimental to the reputation of the earlier registered trademark.

Opposition against Trademark Registration

Article 31

An opposition against the registration of a trademark due to reasons referred to in Articles 7 and 8 of the present Law shall be filed with the competent authority within a time period of ninety days from the date of publication of an application in the Official Gazette.

Opposition referred to in paragraph 1 of the present Article may be filed by the holder of the earlier trademark or acquirer of the license, based on the authorization of the trademark holder.

If the procedure for the removal of earlier trademark or for invalidating the trademark has been initiated before a competent court, the competent authority shall stay the opposition examination procedure until the court decision has become final.

The time limit for filing the opposition referred to in paragraph 1 of the present Article shall not be subject to extension.

The opposition referred to in paragraph 1 of the present Article shall be subject to the payment of administrative fees.

Opposition of international trademark registration

Article 50 a

Publication of international trademark registration in the Gazette of the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization shall be deemed as publication of the trademark application in Montenegro.

The time limit for submission of the opposition starts from the first day in the month following the month designated in the edition of the Gazette of the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization in which such international trademark registration has been published.

If the registration has been preliminary refused under the opposition on international trademark registration, the competent authority shall notify in writing the holder of internationally registered trademark about preliminary refusal and invite him /her to nominate the representative who shall, within four months from the date of issuance the written notification of refusal, submit a power of attorney to the competent authority.

A copy of opposition shall be submitted to the representative upon the submission of the power of attorney.

The deadline for declaration onto the opposition shall be 60 days from the date of receipt of a copy of opposition by the representative.
