 3) it does not comply with the concept of a collective mark referred to in paragraph 7 of Article 2 of this Law;
 4) the provisions of Article 31 or paragraph 1 or 2 of Article 32 of this Regulation are not complied with;
 5) regulations governing use of a collective mark are contrary to public policy or good morale;
 6) the public is liable to be misled as regards the character or the significance of the mark, in particular if it is likely to be taken to be something other than a collective mark.

Article 38(4)(5)

4. An application for registration of a trade mark shall consist of:
 5) regulations governing use of a collective mark (where appropriate) when filing an application for registration of a collective mark;

Article 68(6)

6. If the mark, which is the subject of the international registration, is a collective mark, its proprietor must provide the regulations governing use of the collective mark and their translation into the official language within two months of the date of publication of the international registration in the Gazette of International Marks of the International Bureau.

(According to paragraph 2 of Article 42 of this Law any deficiencies identified during the examination should be remedied in two-month period from the notification.)

Requirements for registration certification mark:*Article 2(13)

13. “Certification mark” means a trade mark which is identified as such when the mark is applied for and which is capable of distinguishing goods or services which are certified by the proprietor of the mark in respect of material, mode of manufacture of goods or performance of services, quality, accuracy or other characteristics, from goods and services which are not so certified.

Article 30(1)

1. A mark may be registered as a certification mark provided the applicant is competent to certify the goods or services for which the mark is to be registered and provided the applicant does not carry on a business involving the supply of goods or services of the kind certified.

Article 38(4)(6)

4. An application for registration of a trade mark shall consist of:
 6) a document certifying the right of the applicant to perform the certification function when filing an application for registration of a certification mark.

Article 68(7)

7. If the mark, which is the subject of the international registration, is a certification mark, its proprietor must provide a document certifying its right to perform the certification function and its translation into the official language within two months of the date of publication of the international registration in the Gazette of International Marks of the International Bureau.

(According to paragraph 2 of Article 42 of this Law any deficiencies identified during the examination should be remedied in two-month period from the notification.)

According to Article 30(1) of this Law and paragraph 49(9) of the Regulations for the Registration of Trade Marks the applicant should declare that he does not carry on a business involving the supply of goods or services of the kind certified.

X. Corresponding essential provisions of the Lithuanian Law on Trade Marks:

Article 2. Main Definitions Used in the Law

... 7. “Collective mark” means a collective mark, which is indicated in the application as a collective and whereby the goods or services of the members of a union of persons, which is the proprietor of the mark, can be distinguished from the goods or services of others. A union of persons is considered to be an association of producers, service providers or traders or another public legal entity, as well as any other association of producers, service providers or traders established in a foreign country that may hold rights and obligations in their own name, enter into contracts or perform other legal acts, to sue and be sued.

13. “Certification mark” means a trade mark which is identified as such when the mark is applied for and which is capable of distinguishing goods or services which are certified by the proprietor of the mark in respect of material, mode of manufacture of goods or performance of services, quality, accuracy or other characteristics, from goods and services which are not so certified.

Article 5. Signs of which a Trade Mark may Consist

A trade mark may consist of any signs, in particular words, including personal names, or designs, letters, numerals, colours, the shape of goods or of the packaging of goods, or sounds, provided that such signs are capable of:

- 1) distinguishing the goods or services of one undertaking from those of other undertakings;
- 2) being represented on the Register of Trade Marks of the Republic of Lithuania (hereinafter referred to as the Register) in a manner, which enables the competent authorities and the public to determine the clear and precise subject matter of the protection afforded to its proprietor.

Article 6. Disclaimers

A mark may consist of elements ineligible for registration as separate (independent) marks. Such mark may be protected only as a whole if there are no grounds laid down in paragraph 1 of Article 7 of this Law. The elements shall be recognised as disclaimers and shall not extend the proprietor of the mark exclusive rights thereto.

Article 7. Absolute Grounds for Refusal of Registration or Invalidation of Registration of a Mark

1. A mark shall be refused registration or the registration of a trade mark shall be declared invalid if:
  - 1) the mark is composed of signs, which do not comply, with the provisions of Article 5 of this Law;
  - 2) the mark is devoid of any distinctive character;
  - 3) the mark consists exclusively of signs or indications which may serve, in trade, to designate the kind, quality, quantity, intended purpose, value, geographical origin or the time of production of the goods or of rendering of the service or other characteristics of the goods or services, except as specified in paragraph 2 of Article 30 and paragraph 2 of Article 31 of this Law;
  - 4) the mark consists only of such signs or indications that have become customary in the current language or in the bona fide and established practices of the trade;
  - 5) the mark consists of:
    - a) the shape or other characteristics, which results from the nature of the goods themselves;
    - b) the shape of goods or other characteristics, which are necessary to obtain a technical result;
    - c) the shape or other characteristics, which gives substantial value to the goods;
  - 6) the mark is contrary to public policy or good moral;
  - 7) the mark may mislead the public, for instance as to the nature, quality or geographical origin of the goods or services;
  - 8) the mark consists of or contains the official symbols of the Republic of Lithuania, or it imitates them, unless the permission has been issued according to the established procedure by the Minister of Justice of the Republic of Lithuania;
  - 9) the mark consists of other coats of arms or other insignias under the Law on the National Coat of Arms and Other Insignias of the Republic of Lithuania, or is composed of or contains distinguishing marks of the state institutions the official use of which is governed by the law, unless consent has been obtained from the competent authorities;
  - 10) it consists of or contains the signs the registration of which has not been authorised by the competent authorities of other states or international organisations and the registration of which is to be refused or invalidated pursuant to Article 6ter of the Paris Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property of 20 March 1883, as revised at Stockholm on 14 July 1967, and amended on 28 September 1979 (hereinafter referred to as the Paris Convention);
  - 11) it consists of or contains a sign of high symbolic value, in particular a religious symbol;
  - 12) it must be excluded from registration pursuant to European Union legislation or international agreements to which the European Union or the Republic of Lithuania is a party, providing for protection of designations of origin and geographical indications;
  - 13) it must be excluded from registration pursuant to European Union legislation or international agreements to which the European Union is a party, providing for protection of traditional terms for wine;
  - 14) it must be excluded from registration pursuant to European Union legislation or international agreements to which the European Union is party, providing for protection of traditional specialities guaranteed;
  - 15) it consists of, or reproduce in their essential elements, an earlier plant variety denomination registered in accordance with European Union legislation or the Law on the Protection of Plant Varieties of the Republic of Lithuania, or international agreements to which the European Union or the Republic of Lithuania is a party, providing protection for plant variety rights, and which is in respect of plant varieties of the same or closely related species;

2. A mark shall not be refused registration and its registration may not be invalidated in accordance with subparagraphs 2, 3 or 4 of paragraph 1 of this Article, if, before the date of application for registration, after the date of filing of the application till the registration of the mark, following the use which has been made of it, it has acquired distinctive character. A trade mark shall not be declared invalid for the same reasons if, before the date of application for a declaration of invalidity, following the use, which has been made of it, it has acquired a distinctive character...

Article 30. Certification Marks

1. A mark may be registered as a certification mark provided the applicant is competent to certify the goods or services for which the mark is to be registered and provided the applicant does not carry on a business involving the supply of goods or services of the kind certified.

2. Signs or indications, which may serve, in trade, to designate the geographical origin of the goods or services may constitute certification marks. Such a certification mark shall not entitle the proprietor to prohibit a third party from using in the course of trade such signs or indications, provided that third party uses them in accordance with honest practices in industrial or commercial matters. In particular, a mark may not be invoked against a third party who is entitled to use a geographical name.

3. A certification mark shall be deemed used where genuine use of a certification mark in accordance with Article 20 is made by any person who has the authority to use it.

4. The provisions of Chapter III of this Law shall apply mutatis mutandis to the registration of a certification mark.

Article 31. Right to a Collective Mark

1. A mark can be registered as a collective mark if the applicant is a union of persons according to paragraph 7 of Article 2.

2. Signs or indications which may serve, in trade, to designate the geographical origin of the goods or services may constitute collective marks. Such a collective mark shall not entitle the proprietor to prohibit a third party from using in the course of trade such signs or indications, provided that third party uses them in accordance with honest practices in industrial or commercial matters. In particular, there a third party is entitled to use a geographical name.

Article 32. Use of a Collective Mark and Regulations Governing the Use

1. The regulations governing the use of a collective mark shall be submitted with the application for the collective mark and shall contain the following data:

1) the name and the headquarters of the union of persons in the name whereof an application for registration of a collective mark has been filed;

2) the purpose of the union of persons and representation procedure;

3) membership conditions;

4) information relating to the union members who have authority to use a collective mark;

5) a reproduction of the mark in accordance with subparagraph 2 of paragraph 5 of Article 38 of this Law;

6) goods and/or services in respect of which the collective mark is applied for;

7) terms and conditions of the use of a collective mark;

6) rights and obligations of the union members and their responsibility in case of non-fulfilment of the conditions of use of a collective mark and infringement of rights to it.

2. The regulations governing use of a mark referred to in paragraph 2 of Article 31 shall authorise any person whose goods or services originate in the geographical area concerned to become a member of the association which is the proprietor of the mark, provided that the person fulfils all the other conditions of the regulations...

Article 33. Refusal of an Application for a Collective Mark

2. An application for a collective mark shall be refused if:

1) there exists at least one of the grounds referred to in paragraph 1 or 2 of Article 7 of this Law;

2) there exists at least one of the grounds referred to in Article 8 of this Law;

3) it does not comply with the concept of a collective mark referred to in paragraph 7 of Article 2 of this Law;

4) the provisions of Article 31 or paragraph 1 or 2 of Article 32 of this Regulation are not complied with;

5) regulations governing use of a collective mark are contrary to public policy or good morale;

6) the public is liable to be misled as regards the character or the significance of the mark, in particular if it is likely to be taken to be something other than a collective mark;

2. An application shall not be refused and the collective mark may be registered according to the procedure established by this Law if the applicant, as a result of amendment of the regulations governing use of the collective mark, meets the requirements referred to in subparagraphs 3 and 6 of paragraph 1 of this Law.

3. The provisions of Chapter III of this Law shall apply mutatis mutandis to the registration of a collective mark.

Article 37. Additional Grounds for Invalidity of the Registration of a Collective Mark

Registration of a collective mark may be declared invalid if a collective has been registered in breach of paragraph 1 of Article 33.

Article 38. Filing of an Application and Application Requirements

... 4. An application for registration of a trade mark shall consist of:

5) regulations governing use of a collective mark (where appropriate) when filing an application for registration of a collective mark;

6) a document certifying the right of the applicant to perform the certification function when filing an application for registration of a certification mark...

Article 42. Examination of Application

1. Upon examination of the application, the State Patent Bureau shall verify whether the submitted application complies with the requirements set out in Articles 38, 40 and 41 of this Law.

2. Having identified any deficiencies during the examination of the application, the two-month period from the date of dispatch of the notice shall be determined for their remedy.

Article 45. Filing of Appeal

1. An applicant who disagrees with the decision adopted by the State Patent Bureau during the re-examination shall have the right to file with the Appeals Division of the State Patent Bureau, within two months from the day of sending of the said decision, a written appeal with a substantiated request for a review of the findings of the examination. A fixed fee must be paid for the filing of an appeal.

2. Appeals shall be examined in written or oral proceedings at the Appeals Division... When an appeal is examined in oral proceedings at the Appeals Division, the applicant and (or) his representative shall be invited to the proceedings; however, failure to attend the proceedings shall not prevent from examination of an appeal...

Article 55. Extension of Time Limits

Following the filing of a written request and payment of a fixed fee by an applicant, a proprietor of a mark or a holder of an international registration, the time limits provided for in paragraph 2 of Article 42, paragraph 3 of Article 43, paragraph 1 of Article 45, paragraphs 1 and 6 of Article 54, paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article 68 of this Law may be extended once but for not longer than one month from the day of expiry of the initial time limit.

Article 65. Invalidity and Revocation of International Registration

1. Where a mark which has been the subject of an international registration does not satisfy the requirements of paragraphs 1 or 2 of Article 7, subparagraphs 3 - 6 of paragraph 1 of Article 33 or paragraph 2 of Article 41 of this Law or if an opposition is filed in the manner prescribed by this Law in respect of the registration of the mark, the State Patent Bureau shall notify the International Bureau within the time limit set by the Madrid Protocol that the protection of the mark is fully or partially refused in the Republic of Lithuania...

Article 68. Special Provisions Applicable to the International Registration of a Trade Mark

1. If the holder of the international registration opposes the decision of the State Patent Bureau to refuse to grant protection because the mark does not satisfy the requirements of paragraph 1 or 2 of Article 7 of this Law, he shall be entitled to request re-examination within three months from the day of making of the decision. If he fails to file the request within the set time limit, the decision of the State Patent Bureau shall be deemed final.

2. If the holder of the international registration objects to the decision made by the State Patent Bureau refusing to grant the protection on the grounds referred to in subparagraphs 3-6 of paragraph 1 of Article 33 or paragraph 3 of Article 41 of this Law, he shall be entitled to file, within two months from the day of dispatch of this decision, an appeal to the Appeals Division according to the procedure set forth in Article 45 of this Law...

6. If the mark, which is the subject of the international registration, is a collective mark, its proprietor must provide the regulations governing use of the collective mark and their translation into the official language within two months of the date of publication of the international registration in the Gazette of International Marks of the International Bureau.

7. If the mark, which is the subject of the international registration, is a certification mark, its proprietor must provide a document certifying its right to perform the certification function and its translation into the official language within two months of the date of publication of the international registration in the Gazette of International Marks of the International Bureau...
