Partial provisional refusal based on an opposition
Partial provisional refusal based on both an ex officio examination and an opposition
V. Information concerning the scope of the provisional refusal:
Partial provisional refusal affects only the following services:
Class 05: "adhesive plasters; adhesive tapes for medical purposes; adjuvants for medical purposes; bandages for dressings; compresses; corn remedies; corn rings for the feet; mustard plasters; pharmaceuticals; poultices; tissues impregnated with pharmaceutical lotions; vitamin supplement patches".
Class 10: "anti-rheumatism bracelets; anti-rheumatism rings; bandages, elastic; knee bandages, orthopaedic; orthopaedic belts; orthopaedic footwear; orthopaedic soles; orthopedic articles; pads for preventing pressure sores on patient bodies; supportive bandages".
Partial provisional refusal does NOT affect the following goods and/or services:
VI. Grounds for refusal:
Motives for refuse:  The mark applied for is a word mark and consists of the elements "Artro-" and "patch". The verbal element "ARTRO" derives from the word "ARTHROSIS" which is a degenerative disease of a joint. The word "PATCH" means a piece of material (such as adhesive plaster) used medically usually to cover a wound.  The goods in classes 05 and 10 are aimed at both the average consumer who is well-informed, observant and careful when choosing the desired product or service as well as at professionals whose awareness is higher. The relevant public will perceive the sign only as informative expression, which conveys obvious and direct information regarding the kind and intended purpose of the goods - i.e. that they are patches for the treatment of arthrosis.

The mark applied for consists only of word elements, which are descriptive in respect of the goods for which protection is sought. The sign is not capable of distinguish the goods of one propriety from another.

The word elements "Artro-" and "patch" must be kept free for all competitors.
