Examination Report

Grounds for refusal

We have found that the list of goods and services is too vague, cf. the Danish Trade Marks Act, Section 12.

According to the Danish Trade Mark Act and the ruling of the ECJ in C-418/02, a trademark application must contain a precise list of the goods and services covered by the registration of the mark.

Regarding the goods “Milk lump (candy)” in class 30

The goods are considered too vague as it is unclear what a milk lump is. We suggest that the term is specified to “milk-based candy shaped as lumps” in class 30.

Regarding the goods “fruity tea drink” in class 30

The goods “fruity tea drink” are considered too vague as it is unclear whether the beverage is a tea-based drink with fruit flavoring in class 30 or a fruit-flavored drink in class 32. We suggest that the term is specified to “tea-based drinks with fruit flavoring” in class 30.

Please contact WIPO if you wish to specify and move the term to class 32. The Danish Patent and Trademark Office does not have the opportunity or authority to move terms to other classes.

Request for review of the provisional refusal

You may request a review of the provisional refusal within 4 months from the date of issue of the provisional refusal.

Please observe that documents or evidence submitted by you will be available to the public according to the regulations of The Danish Access to Public Administration Files Act.

A request for review should be sent by post or e-mail to:

Appendix A

Guide concerning Confusingly Similar Trademarks

The Danish Patent and Trademark Office has searched for marks applied for or registered in the Danish territory, which are confusingly similar to your trademark. We have assessed whether there is a likelihood of confusion between the marks, i.e. whether the marks are similar visually as well as phonetically and whether the goods and services covered by your application are identical with or similar to those covered by the earlier right. We refer to the Danish Trade Marks Act, section 15, containing rules concerning identical and confusingly similar trademarks.

If we have found conflicting marks we have included a search report as well as extracts of our register of any confusingly similar marks.

If we have found earlier rights you may consider the following options:

- to register your mark irrespective of the earlier right - or
- to limit the list of goods and services in order to avoid that your application covers goods and services similar to those covered by the earlier right - or
- to obtain a letter of consent from the proprietors of the earlier right permitting you to make use of and register your trademark in Denmark.

If we do not hear from you before the expiration of the time limit mentioned in our letter, we will register your trademark irrespective of the earlier rights, if any, mentioned in the search report.

Registration

Please be informed that the proprietor of the earlier right can file an opposition against the registration of your trademark if you choose to have your trademark registered irrespective of the earlier right.

Limitation

If the earlier right does not cover all the goods and services, for which your trademark is applied, you can limit your application in order to avoid that your application covers goods and services similar to those covered by the earlier right. You must file a new list of goods and services, if you wish to limit your application. Please be informed that we can assist you in connection with the wording of such a list.

Written consent

A written consent must be unconditional, and it must permit you to register the applied trademark for the goods and services covered by the application. If the consent does not include all goods and services applied for, you must limit your application in accordance with the consent. The letter of consent must be dated and duly signed by the proprietor of the earlier right. We can only accept a copy, if it is attested.

Examination of applications

Section 16

- (1) If the application does not comply with this Act or the provisions laid down pursuant to this Act, or if the Patent and Trade mark Office has other objections to the acceptance of the application, the Patent and Trade mark Office shall notify the applicant accordingly and invite him to file his observations within a specified time limit.

- 5) Trade marks which are excluded from registration pursuant to Union legislation or the national law of the Member State concerned, or to international agreements to which the Union or the Member State concerned is party, providing for protection of designations of origin and geographical indications.
- 6) Trade marks which are excluded from registration pursuant to Union legislation or international agreements to which the Union is party, providing for protection of traditional terms for wine.
- 7) Trade marks which are excluded from registration pursuant to Union legislation or international agreements to which the Union is party, providing for protection of traditional specialities guaranteed.
- 8) Trade marks which consist of, or reproduce in their essential elements, an earlier plant variety denomination protected by plant variety sort rights and which are in respect of plant varieties of the same or closely related species.
