XI. Corresponding essential provisions of the applicable law:

Law on Trademarks and Geographical Indications of Mongolia
Article 13. Certification Marks

13.1. The application for a certification mark shall be filed in compliance with Article 6 of this Law by a person wishing to register the trademark as a certification mark and shall be accompanied by the following:

13.1.1. regulations governing the use of certification marks;

13.1.2. evidence to the effect that a person is a certification organization.

13.2. The regulations governing the use of a certification mark shall specify the name and address of the certification organization, the requirements relating to the quality, standards, specifications or other characteristic of the goods or services, the rules of the certification of the goods or services, the conditions of use of the certification mark, prescriptions and control of use, and the liabilities to be imposed if used for other purposes.

13.3. The owner of a certification mark shall be a certification organization which attests specific characteristics of the goods or services, while natural or legal persons authorized thereby shall be entitled only to use the certification mark.

13.4. The person authorized to use a certification mark shall be entitled to take preventive measures against unlawful use of the mark only with the permission of the owner of the mark.

13.5. The owner of a certification mark shall, on behalf of a person authorized to use the mark, be entitled to claim compensation for the damage caused by unlawful use of the certification mark or a mark similar thereto by others.

13.6. For the certification mark which consists of a geographical indication and attests an origin of the goods, the provisions of this Law relating to geographical indications shall be applicable.
