COMITE INTERNATIONAL OLYMPIQUE

IV- Industrial Property Code No: 6769: Art.11
(The relevant provisions of the Turkish Trademarks Act are enclosed.)

V- Grounds for provision refusal:

Art.11 Goods or services for which application is filed shall be classified in accordance with Nice Agreement Concerning the International Classification of Goods and Services for the Purposes of the Registration of Marks, which was ratified pursuant to the decision of the Council of Ministers dated 12/7/1995 numbered 95/7094. The Office may perform necessary corrections on classes and class numbers belonging to goods and services in the application. As it is written in item VI., the wording of the services in Class 35 is too vague for the purposes of classification. For that reason the applicant must specify the scope of the "retail services; wholesale services; on-line sale services...", i.e. retail services/wholesale services/on-line sale services in relation to/namely footwear, meat, poultry and game, textile machines etc.

VII-General information:

Appeals may be lodged against the refusals of the Office.

The holder of the international registration may lodge an appeal against this refusal. The appeal has to be lodged through the intermediary of a representative who must be registered as a trademark agent at Turkish Patent and Trademark Office and who is domiciled in Turkey. The appeal must be received by the Turkish Patent and Trademark Office no later than 2 months after the notification date of this refusal by WIPO to the applicant or his representative. If no appeal is received within this time limit, the designation will be considered as refused protection in Turkey accordance with this refusal.

If the designation is accepted subsequent to an appeal, the designation will be published in Turkish Official Trademark Bulletin. This allows -2 months from the date of publication – a party to file an opposition, which means that the designation may be the subject of a further refusal.

Regarding oppositions filed in the scope of the first paragraph of Article 6, (An application for trademark registration shall be refused upon opposition if there exists a likelihood of confusion on the part of the public, including the likelihood of association with the earlier trademark, due to identity with, or similarity to, the earlier trademark and the identity or similarity of the goods or services covered.) provided that the trademark, which is the ground for opposition, has been registered for at least five years at the date of application or date of priority of the application for which the opposition is filed, upon the request of the applicant, it shall be requested from the opponent to submit evidence proving that he had genuinely used his trademark on the goods and services relating to the opposition during the five-years period before the date of application or the date of priority of the latter application or whether he has a proper reason for not using his trademark during that period. In case the opponent fails to prove the aforesaid, opposition shall be refused. If it is proven that the trademark, which is the ground for opposition, has been used only for some of the goods or services which are covered by registration, then the opposition shall be examined taking into account the goods or services whose use is proven.

- ç) Signs which are identical to or indistinguishably similar to a trademark, which has been registered or which has been applied for registration, relating to identical goods and services or to goods and services of the identical type,
- d) Signs which consist exclusively or includes as an essential element of signs or indications used by everyone in the trade area or which serves to distinguish members of a particular professional, vocational or commercial group from others.
- e) Signs which consist exclusively of the shape or another characteristic which results from the nature of the goods themselves or the shape or other characteristics which is mandatory to obtain a technical result or gives substantial value to the goods;
- f) Signs which would deceive the public, for instance, as to the nature, quality or geographical origin of the goods or service;
- g) Signs which shall be refused pursuant to Article 6ter of the Paris Convention;
- ğ) Signs other than those covered by Article 6ter of the Paris Convention but which are of public interest, and which contain historical, cultural values, and emblems, badges or escutcheons for which the consent of the competent authority has not been given,
- h) Signs that contain religious values or symbols;
- ı) Signs which are contrary to public policy or to accepted principles of morality;
- i) Signs which consist of a registered geographical sign or which contain a registered geographical sign.

(2) If a trademark has been used before the application, and through this use, has acquired distinctive character in respect of the goods and services subject to the application, the registration of this trademark may not be refused in accordance with subparagraphs (b), (c) and (d) of the first paragraph.

(3) A trademark application may not be refused according to subparagraph (ç) of the first paragraph if a notarial document indicating the clear consent of the prior trademark proprietor for the registration of the
