TRADEMARKS ACT 2019

23. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Registrar shall refuse to register a trademark based on the following absolute grounds for refusal of registration:

- (a) signs which are not capable of being represented graphically and not capable of distinguishing goods or services of one undertaking from those of other undertakings;
- (b) trademarks which are devoid of any distinctive character;
- (c) trademarks which consist exclusively of signs or indications which may serve, in trade, to designate the kind, quality, quantity, intended purpose, value, geographical origin, other characteristics of goods or services or the time of production of goods or of rendering of services; or
- (d) trademarks which consist exclusively of signs or indications which have become customary in the current language of the territory or in the bona fide and established practices of the trade.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraphs (1) (b), (c) and (d), the Registrar shall not refuse to register an application of a trademark if, before the date of application for registration, the trademark has in fact acquired a distinctive character as a result of its use.

(3) The Registrar shall refuse to register a sign as a trademark if the sign consists exclusively of—

- (a) the shape which results from the nature of the goods themselves;

- (c) the shape which gives substantial value to the goods.

(4) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2), the Registrar shall refuse to register the following as a trademark if—

(5) In addition to the grounds in subsections (1), (3) and (4), the Registrar shall refuse to register a trademark based on any of the following absolute grounds for refusal of registration:

- (a) if the use of the trademark is likely to deceive or cause confusion to the public or contrary to any written law;

(h) the trademarks contain or consist of a word which is commonly used as or is the accepted name of any single chemical element or single chemical compound, as distinguished from a mixture, or which is declared by the World Health Organization as an international non-proprietary name or which is deceptively similar to such name unless it is used—connection between those goods or services and the proprietor of the well-known trademark;

- (ii) there exists a likelihood of confusion on the part of the public because of such use; and
- (iii) the interests of the proprietor of the well-known trademark are likely to be damaged by such use.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), the Registrar shall refuse to register a trademark if, or to the extent that, its use in Malaysia is prevented—

- (a) by virtue of any rule of law protecting an unregistered trademark or other sign used in the course of trade including under the law of passing off; or
- (b) by virtue of an earlier right other than those referred to in paragraph (a) or in subsections (1) to (3) including under the law of copyright or industrial designs.

(5) A person entitled to prevent the use of a trademark is referred to in this Act as the proprietor of an “earlier right” in relation to the trademark in subsection (4).

(6) The Registrar may refuse to register a trademark on any grounds under subsection (4) if that ground is raised in proceedings in opposition to the registration under section 35 by the proprietor of the earlier right.

(7) Notwithstanding the relative grounds for refusal of registration under subsections (1), (2), (3) and (4), the Registrar may register a trademark if the proprietor of the earlier trademark or other earlier right consents to the registration in the prescribed manner and shall take into account the interest of the public and the likelihood of confusion on the part of public.
