Applied articles of Greek trademark law in case of notice of opposition (Article 10 of law 2239/1994):

- 1. a third party may oppose the decision taken by the administrative Trade Marks Committee, wholly or in part accepting registration of the trademark in question, before the Committee, provided that the party has legal interest, even not financial not intervened in the hearing of the application. The same right is also granted to the Chambers but only in accordance with article 3 of the present Law.
- The opposition against decisions of the Administrative Committee of Trademarks is drafted in the form of a legal deed which is filed with the competent department, recorded in a special book and a registration report is made.
- 3. The opposition may also be made with service of the legal deed to the competent department in compliance with the relevant provisions of the Civil Procedure Code and within one day following service of the deed, it is recorded in the special book of trademarks.
- 4. The opposition filed against a decision of the Administrative Trademarks Committee and of the courts against a decision accepting the Trademark, is made within four months, starting from the 16th of the month following publication of the judgment in the Commercial and Industrial Property Column of the Official Bulletin

The third party may appeal against the decision made by the Administrative trade Marks Committee.
