Extract from the Estonian Trademark Act

§ 10. Relative circumstances which preclude legal protection

- (1) Legal protection shall not be granted to the following trade marks:
- 2) trade marks which are identical or similar to an earlier trade mark which has been granted legal protection with regard to identical goods or services or goods or services of a similar kind designated by the trade mark, if there exists a likelihood of confusion on the part of the public, which includes association of the trade mark with the earlier trade mark;
- 3) trade marks which are identical or similar to an earlier registered trade mark or a trade mark which has been filed for registration or to a trade mark which is known to the majority of the Estonian population and which has been granted legal protection for different kinds of goods or services, if the use of the later trade mark without due cause would take unfair advantage of, or be detrimental to, the distinctive character or the repute of the earlier trade mark;

§ 13. Representative for performing acts related to legal protection of trade marks

(2) A person with no residence, seat or commercial or industrial enterprise operating in Estonia shall authorise a patent agent as the person's representative to perform acts related to trade marks in the Patent Office and Board of Appeal, except the filing of an application.

§ 41. Adjudication of appeals and revocation applications

- (2) An interested person may contest an applicant's right to a trade mark in the Industrial Property Board of Appeal if circumstances specified in subsection 9 (1) or § 10 of this Act which preclude legal protection exist. The term for the filing of a revocation application is two months as of the publication of the notice of the decision to register a trade mark.
- (3) In case an appeal or revocation application is allowed in whole or in part, the Board of Appeal shall annul the decision of the Patent Office and require the Patent Office to continue proceedings taking into account the facts set out in the decision of the Board of Appeal.
