SECTION II LEGAL PROTECTION OF MARKS

Article 5. Conditions of Granting the Legal Protection

1. The legal protection is granted to a mark that does not contradict the public order, humane and moral principles and is not subject to the refusal of the rights protection according to the grounds defined by this Law.

Article 6. Grounds for Refusal of the Legal Protection

1. According to this Law, the legal protection shall not be granted for marks that represent or imitate:

State armorial bearings, flags, and other state symbols (emblems); official names of States; symbols and abbreviated or full names of international intergovernmental organizations; official control, guarantee, or testing seals, stamps; decorations and other honorary signs.

The said signs may be included in a mark as non-protected elements, provided that the consent of the relevant authorized body or of the sign owners was obtained. The authorized body with respect to the name of a State is the collegial body established by the Office.

2. According to this Law, the legal protection shall not be granted for marks that:

- 1) are usually devoid of distinguishing capacity and did not obtain such a capacity through their use;

- 2) consist exclusively of signs that are commonly used as the signs of goods and services of a certain type;

- 3) consist exclusively of signs or data that are descriptive while using for goods and services defined in the application or with respect to them, in particular signs or data that indicate kind, quality, composition, quantity, properties, purposes, value of goods and services, the place and time of manufacturing or sale of goods or rendering of services;

- 4) are deceptive or liable to mislead as to goods, services, or the person producing goods or rendering services;

- 5) consist exclusively of signs that are commonly used symbols and terms;

- 6) present only the form caused by the natural state of goods, or by the necessity to get a specific technical result, or the form imparting the essential value to the goods.

The signs mentioned in Items 1, 2, 3, 5 and 6 of this Paragraph may be used in a mark as non-protected elements if these signs are not dominative in the reproduction of a mark.

3. Signs shall not be registered as marks if they are identical or misleadingly similar to:

- 1) marks that were earlier registered or filed for the registration in Ukraine on behalf of another person for identical or similar goods and services;

- 2) marks of other persons if these marks are protected without registration according to the international agreements to which Ukraine is a party, in particular the marks recognized as well-known marks according to Article 6-bis of the Paris Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property;

- 3) trade names that are known in Ukraine and belong to other persons who have acquired the right to the said names before the date of filing the applications to the Office with respect to identical or similar goods and services;

- 4) qualified indications of the origin of goods (including alcohols and alcohol drinks) that are protected according to the Law of Ukraine "On the Protection of Rights to Indication of the Origin of Goods"; the said signs may be used only as non-protected elements of the marks of the persons who have the right to use the said indications;

- 5) conformity marks (certification marks) that have been registered under the determined procedure.

4. Signs shall not be registered if they represent:

- 1) industrial designs, the rights to which in Ukraine belong to other persons;
- 2) titles of scientific, literary, and artistic works known in Ukraine or quotations and characters from the said works as well as the artistic works and their fragments without the consent of copyright holders or their successors in title;
- 3) surnames, first names, pseudonyms and their derivatives, portraits and facsimiles of persons known in Ukraine without their consent.
