Examination Report

Grounds for refusal

We have found that the mark is descriptive and thus lacks distinctive character, cf. the Danish Trade Marks Act, Sections 13(1) and 13(2)(1).

The mark merely indicates the use of the goods, namely that by using the, the user is able to oil-in the body or hair.

Consequently, the mark may serve to designate the intended purpose of the goods/services.

Please be informed that the Danish Trade Marks Act Section 13(3) allows for the registration of marks, which have acquired distinctiveness through use.

Request for review of the provisional refusal

You may request a review of the provisional refusal within 4 months from the date of issue of the provisional refusal.

Please observe that documents or evidence submitted by you will be available to the public according to the regulations of The Danish Access to Public Administration Files Act.

Final refusal and appeal

If you do not reply within the time-limit mentioned above, we will issue a final refusal, which is subject to appeal to the Board of Appeal for Patents and Trademarks.

If you do not appeal our final decision, we will publish the mark for the remaining goods/services, namely:

Class 3: Soaps.

Further information

Please see Appendices A and B for information on our search of earlier rights (relative grounds for refusal) and an abstract of the relevant sections of the Danish Trade Marks Act.

Information about search results

We have conducted a search in the relevant Danish registers for earlier conflicting rights, such as trademarks, company names and personal names.

Please find the result of our search by following the link below:

<http://onlineweb.dkpto.dk/pvsonline/Varemaerke?action=104&xsagID=MP1285806&language=en>

Please note that the search result has not been examined for relative grounds. You can request an examination of relative grounds by contacting our Office.

Please be informed that there might be conflicting Community trademarks and/or trademarks under the Protocol relating to the Madrid Agreement of which we either had no knowledge at all or about which we had no information as to the extent of the trademarks at the time of our search. You should also be aware that other rights which are not included in our search, such as design rights, copyright or closely similar company names, may serve as relative grounds.

General information concerning the relative grounds for refusal

Please note that the rights mentioned in the search report can act as possible grounds for refusal, only if the holders of the cited rights should file an opposition against the validity of the designation in Denmark.

Therefore you may choose to have the designation published in the Danish Trademark Gazette irrespective of the earlier rights. This allows a third party to file an opposition within a period of 2 months from the date of publication.

Should an opposition be filed against the designation, we will inform you accordingly and invite you to comment on the opposition before the Danish Patent and Trademark Office makes a decision. If no opposition is filed within the time limit, the designation will be granted full validity in Denmark.

If you wish to overcome the earlier rights before the designation is published, you can choose to:

Supply us with a letter of consent from the proprietors of the earlier rights, permitting you to make use of the trademark in Denmark and have the trademark published in the Danish Trademark Gazette and/or

Limit the list of goods and services in order to avoid that the designation covers goods and services similar to those covered by the earlier rights. Please note that a limitation of the list of goods and services should be submitted to the International Bureau (Form MM6) according to Rule 25 of the Common Regulations.

The possibility of overcoming earlier rights through a written consent and/or a limitation of the list of goods and services is also at hand during an opposition procedure.
