LAW 4072/2012 -Article 124 : Relative grounds for refusal

1. A sign shall not be registered:

- a. If it is identical to an earlier trademark and the goods or services, for which the trademark has been registered, are identical with those for which the earlier mark is protected,
- b. If because of the identity with the earlier trademark and the similarity of goods or services, or the similarity to the earlier trademark and the identity of goods or services, or the similarity to the earlier trademark and the similarity of goods or services, there is a risk of public confusion, which also includes the likelihood of its association with the earlier trademark.
- c. If it is identical or similar to an earlier trademark that has a reputation and the use of the later trademark would take, without due cause, unfair advantage of the distinctive character or the repute of the earlier trademark or would damage its be detrimental to the distinctive character or its reputation, regardless if the later trademark is intended to distinguish goods or services that are similar to products or services of the earlier trademark.

2. For the purpose of this Law "earlier trademarks" means:

- a. the trademarks, including the international ones protected in Greece and in the EU, which have been registered before the date of the trademark application filing, taking into account the priority or seniority rights claimed in respect of those trademarks,
- b. the earlier trademarks applications, including the above international and Community ones, subject to their registration,
- c. the trademarks which on the date of the trademark application filing or, where appropriate, of the priority claimed in respect of the application for registration of the trade mark, are well known, in the sense of Article 6bis of the Paris Convention
